Lettl Achieves 4th Echelon Of Ullmann Award

Werner Lettl, right, from southern Bavaria, not only hunted in 14 European countries to achieve 32 different species of European big game trophy animals and complete the requirements for the "4th Echelon" of "The Ullmann Award," but he was also very happy to receive the trophy on his 70th Birthday. Congratulating him on his birthday and his European hunting achievements is Norbert Ullmann, left, Chairman of "The Ullmann Award Foundation." For further information, please visit: www.ullmannaward.de.
