

Rudolph Achieves Ullmann Award

SCI President Dr. Larry Rudolph, right, receives Ullmann Award from Norbert Ullmann.

SCI President Dr. Larry Rudolph is an avid hunter and collector of international stature. He has also extensively hunted in Europe. On his 12 trips to the continent, he hunted in eight different countries and collected 24 species. With these he qualified for the Third Echelon of "The Ullmann Award for European Big Game Trophy Animals." The crystal trophies corresponding for this achievement were handed to him during the "SCI European Gala Dinner" in the Hunting Castle of Palarikovo, early December 2009. Shown are awardee Larry Rudolph, right, and Norbert Ullmann, Chairman of "The Ullmann Award Executive Committee, left. 🐾

Vrhovnik Achieves Ullmann Award

For the first time in its 12-year existence, an international hunter and collector of former "Eastern Europe" has achieved Echelons of "The Ullmann Award of European Big Game Trophy Animals." He is Damir Vrhovnik of Croatia, who received the three Echelon-trophies he has so far hunted for during the "European SCI Gala Dinner" in December 2009 in the Hunting Castle of Palarikovo, Slovakia. Damir, right, is being congratulated by Norbert Ullmann, left, Chairman of the Executive Committee of "the Ullmann Award" on his accomplishments. 🐾
